

Grammer Office brand has recently shared information on the Sail chair being awarded with a prestigious iF product design award. And now, the brand is delighted to inform about another achievement – the Sail won the 6th edition of the Diamond of Furniture Industry Awards in “Office Seating” category.

Diamond of Furniture Industry is a 6-year-old competition held in Poland which the best products of furniture industry are invited into. A few dozen of jurors, i.e. experts, furniture showrooms representatives, journalists, architects, interior designers, scientists and representatives of leading Polish furniture fairs, have chosen the best products to be awarded with Diamond of Furniture Industry statuettes.

Almost 150 products were entered to this year’s edition. The criteria applied by the jury were design, originality and the looks of the product. Therefore, the award is a confirmation of an excellent design, great image of the producer, and proves that the product is well perceived by clients and experts.

The presentation of the awards and gala will take place in January 2012.

More information at www.grammer-office.com